Bill Preston

Bill joined the Kiwanis Club of Suburban Kalamazoo in 1986. Bill's career in Kiwanis got off to a roaring start. He actually attended the International Convention in Toronto before officially joining Kiwanis! Obviously he enjoyed the Convention!.

Bill quickly held most of the club offices becoming President of Suburban in 1990. Bill is an active participant in Kiwanis always available to work on a project, attend an interclub or attend a convention.

Bill and his wife Kate are famous for hosting the annual Suburban picnic which is a required stop on the travel schedule of the Kiwanis District Officers. Bill and Kate have three children, Pat, Don and Jim. His contributions to Kiwanis and to Suburban have been greatly appreciated by his club which honored him by making him a Kiwanis Fellow in 1990.
