The Distinguished Kiwanian Award

Jacqueline Whidby is a perfect choice for the Distinguished Kiwanian Award. She epitomizes the Kiwanis spirit.

Jacque has been a member of the Kiwanis Club of Battle Creek since 1988. She is a lady of great character and wonderful temperament who enjoys a splendid reputation of integrity and tireless energy.

She has demonstrated her leadership skills by serving as chairperson of several committees, moving through the ranks to president.

As president she accomplished several projects that made an impact on the Community. The Club purchased a Fire Safety Training Trailer to teach the children of Battle Creek fire safety.

Jacque has a passion for service. Currently she serves a Chairperson, Board of Directors, Battle Creek Memorial Park Association and Treasurer of the Calhoun County Chapter of F. E. C.
