Teddis Dumbauld

Ted Dumbauld is someone who could be described as a quiet, soft spoken leader. He educates, guides and runs things smoothly while keeping a kind demeanor and his sense of humor. He was introduced to our club by Phil Schairbaum and Harold Pletz and was inducted September 5, 2001.

In his nine years of service he successfully chaired the Membership Committee and took upon the task of designing a new brochure for our club to disseminate. Ted has assisted the area Boy Scouts, which we sponsor, by his presence and guidance. As a member of a men's choral group he has brought joy to various churches, members and residents in several nursing home facilities.

During his term as President of the Charlevoix Kiwanis Club he focused on balancing the budget and encouraged the club in it's fund raising efforts. This led to his selection as Distinguished President for 2007-2008. The local hospital was blessed by his help as a Lay Chaplain and helped them in their Print Shop whenever help was needed.

No one went hungry when Ted was around as he kept busy delivering for Meals On Wheels. When he wasn't delivering food he was found reading to young children in the Head Start Program. In his spare time he might wield a hammer or paint brush to improve the cabin our club sponsors at Camp Daggett.

Ted is married to a supportive and loving wife who joins him on many of his efforts. Our community and club are fortunate to have a member such as Ted who is always ready to help by his direction and well thought out planning. If you want a job done and done right you can always call upon Ted Dumbauld.
