CLAYTON E. LOTT

The Board of Directors and club members of the Kiwanis Club of Detroit-Northwest are proud and honored to present one of its outstanding Kiwanians and community leaders, Clayton E. Lott, for the Forney W. Clement "Distinguished Kiwanian Award."

Clayton joined the Kiwanis Club of Detroit - Northwest in August 1949 and was chosen "Man of the Year" in 1961. He served as Club President during 1967-68 and again during 1970-71. Clayton has been a very active member and has served on many committees. He is currently the Fund Raising Chairman of his club.

Clayton's other memberships include a life membership in Palestine Lodge #357, F. & A.M., King Cyrus Chapter #133 R.A.M., Detroit Commandry #1, Knights Templar and Moslem Temple Shrine. He is also a member of Redford B.P.O. Elks Lodge #2097.

Clayton was born in Brussels, Ontario, Canada and came to Detroit at an early age. After serving his apprenticeship as a painter, he entered into business as a painting contractor in 1925. He served as President of the Detroit Chapter and Michigan Council - Painting and Decorating Contractors of America (P.D.C.A.).

Clayton was married to Miriam in July 1931; their family consists of one son, George, Two daughters, Nancy and Barbara, and four grandchildren.

At the present time, Clayton is active in his contracting business and along with his wife own and operate a retail wallpaper and paint store.
