District Committee Chair Reports

August 10, 2025

Aktion Club, Judy Couvillon

At this time the LaMissTenn District of Kiwanis International has eight active Aktion Clubs. As you are aware these clubs are offering adults with disabilities the opportunity to make friendships to enjoy meetings and programs and a chance to do community service. The sponsoring Kiwanis Clubs are, of course, very much involved with their Aktion Clubs and are constantly seeking new and interesting ways to enhance membership in the clubs.

For instance, the Hammond Kiwanis Aktion Club made the decision earlier this year to put emphasis on educational programs at the club's twice monthly meetings. For example one of our members, Dr. Roy Blackwood, an accomplished artist, presented an entertaining and educational program on carving a rocking horse. Other programs featured respect and care for the U.S. flag, knot tying and other skills, and memory enhancing games.

The Aktion Club sponsored by the Germantown Kiwanis Club is a part of the Madonna Learning Center's Monarch Program. The adults attend one of the three programs that focus on independent living, vocational internships and job readiness. They also have physical education and art. In addition, they have a toffee company and make and sell toffee. With so much being offered, we really focus on service to our community and leadership. We meet once a month during the school year and do nothing out of the ordinary except have fun!

I will continue to work with other Kiwanis Clubs in the District who are currently sponsoring an Aktion Club and others who have indicated that they may want to start an Aktion Club later.

LaMissTenn's new International Trustee is Theodore Doyle, from the Caribbean District. The new CKI President is Jonathan Huang (New England District) and CKI Vice President is Neha Pasupuleti (Ohio District).

PROSPECTIVE CLUBS:

Kiwanis support has been phenomenal for all four of these CKI clubs! Each of these clubs are recruiting during freshmen orientation sessions to recruit potential members. Activity has been slow during the summer months yet we are gearing up for the fall.

- Northwestern State (Natchitoches, LA)
- LSU-Alexandria (Alexandria, LA)
- UT-Martin (Martin, TN)

DCON Chair, Sue Olsson

Since most of the Trustees will have attended DCON, I will be very brief. Thanks to all of you who so generously supported the 2025 DCON. We were very successful in seeking sponsorships which came with free base registrations. We used these to invite our club members to come to convention and also offered them to other clubs in 1C in the hopes of creating a mini-revival of enthusiasm and connectivity with other clubs. Thanks to all who supported this effort and especially to Jen for keeping everything organized and on track.

Human & Spiritual Values, Dennis Oliver

Key Club Administrator, Danny Williams

We begin the year with a board of 17 students and a 3 member adult team. We held our New Board Training in Natchez, MS and recently attended the Key Club International Convention in Orlando, Fl. We had 18 students and 6 adults attend ICON.

Goals for 25-26: (developed with Key Club Governor Lyndsey)

- increasing District membership by 10%
- increasing number of Key Clubbers attending Fall Rallies, DCON and ICON
- chartering at least 6 new clubs
- reactivating 50% of current inactive clubs

Action Steps:

- Strengthen partnerships with sponsoring Kiwanis Clubs.
- Encourage and support all Kiwanis Clubs to sponsor at least one Key Club.
- Contact Key Clubs and Kiwanis Club directly about inactive clubs.
- Make DCON and ICON as affordable as possible
- Communicate early and often with clubs about dues, rallies, and conventions.

Other priorities:

1. Continue to expand the District Board to include 70% of divisions covered with LTGs from their division to better serve the clubs and promote growth in the divisions.

	Percent covered with
	LTGs
23-24	30%
24-25	44%
25-26	60%

- 1. Continue improved communication

- send an Advisor focused newsletter from the DA each month.
- b. With parents of board members
  - i. Copy parents on information sent to the board members about board meetings and other events requiring travel and parent permission.

Public Relations, Donna Leggett

As the District Public Relations Coordinator, I write a quarterly article for the District Newsletter to encourage and promote club branding in the LaMissTenn District. I serve on the Education Committee and attend monthly meetings as we plan our conferences, conventions and leadership education.

During the week of club openings, I post new member pictures on the new club Facebook page. The idea is that sponsoring club members and new Kiwanis members would like, comment and share the posts to help promote the new club.

As PR Coordinator I am the track chair for the communications track at DCON. I will be leading a workshop with Jennifer White on cracking the social media code. I will also speak on a panel with Greg Beard on sponsoring new clubs.

This month I had the privilege of judging the newsletter and Facebook page submissions for district awards. We really had some tough competition this year. I will be speaking about building the Kiwanis brand at the ELAMISSTENN meeting.

I also serve as a resource for the clubs to assist with club Facebook pages, newsletters and branding.

Risk Manager, Patrice Cusimano

Youth Protection Manager, Michele Crosby

I continue to speak to Clubs, field questions from people who call me directly, presented on a zoom summer call and am presenting via Zoom at DCON. Exciting stuff. I contact club secretaries when Jenny Najib notifies me when advisor background checks have expired. My next initiative is to reach out directly to clubs who still have not had annual club training per KI.
