President message

We are in the home stretch of another Kiwanis year and most of our Districts are busy with conducting their annual business this month, preparing for the next leaders to take up the mantle. Our club is no different and I feel confident that next year's board will continue with the legacy of fellowship and service that this club has. While I have been busy with District Secretary duties for DCON planning this month I came across the following message from Jackson Kinnard that really resonated with me and will be included in some of my remarks during the Ohio District Convention. I hope that you find some truth in it as I have.

“Anything that annoys you is teaching your patience.
Anyone who abandons you is teaching you how to stand up on your own two feet.
Anything that angers you is teaching you forgiveness and compassion.
Anything that has power over you is teaching you how to take your power back.
Anything you hate is teaching you unconditional love.
Anything you fear is teaching you courage to overcome your fear.
Anything you can't control is teaching you how to let go.”

If you are traveling to conventions this month, I wish you a safe journey and extend my appreciation for your support of our beloved organization.

Sincerely,
Jim Janosik
