The Kiwanis Story

THIS IS WHY WE VOLUNTEER.

The Kiwanis Mission

Kiwanis International is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world one child and one community at a time.

Members of the Kiwanis Club of Centennial Hills fulfill this mission by participating year-round in various community service projects. Whether it's building beds, addressing the needs of homeless youth, mentoring future business leaders, or awarding scholarships for post-secondary education, this hands-on commitment to effecting positive change throughout the Las Vegas Valley is at the heart of everything we do.

Why Kiwanis?

Through our participation in community service projects, as well as our commitment to post-secondary education through our expanding Scholarship Program, the Kiwanis Club of Centennial Hills sets a high standard of servant leadership.

Offering the opportunity to become involved in meaningful outreach and support, all while enjoying deeper friendships and relationships with Kiwanians throughout the Las Vegas Valley and beyond, we invite you to join us!

KEY CLUB®

In cooperation with Clark County School District administrators and educators, Centennial Hills Kiwanians serve as advisors and mentors for Key Club members at Arbor View High School and Shadow Ridge High School, both located in the Northwest Las Vegas Valley. Students develop their leadership skills and build character by planning and participating in community service projects, facilitating meetings, and encouraging each other to grow in compassion and unselfish service to those around them.
