TX-OK District Convention Report

A potential fund-raiser in December and suggestions for bringing in members, along with fun stories from Texarkana, were discussed at our club's July 29 meeting. Also, members who didn't attend the Texas-Oklahoma district convention July 23-25 were given awards they won.

Past president Ken Reedy received a Distinguished Member award and a Mighty T-O Distinguished President Award for 2024-25. Club secretary Bill Watson received a Distinguished Secretary award and a second-place award for the newsletter in the white division, along with $75.

Club members Joe Holland and president Joe McIntyre were at the convention to receive their Distinguished Member certificates.

Betty Roberts talked about suggestions she heard for getting to know members and increasing membership. Members should be asked in an annual survey what's strong and what's wrong about our club, and they can also be asked their favorite local charity.

T-O District staff member Marshall Kregel said he would like to help us develop a marketing plan for membership, and since he gets paid by Kiwanis, he said he would only charge us coffee. I hope to meet with him in August or September.

Roberts particularly liked when a former T-O Governor said the bottom line with Kiwanis is relationships with kids, fellow Kiwanians, and other clubs.

The family entertainment in Texarkana was at a speakeasy downtown called the Banana Club. Kiwanis members who attended were given Singo cards and had to find songs on the cards that were played.

Daniel and Chrissie Clanton made up Singo papers with Christmas songs and suggested we do a fund-raiser in December with them. More planning needs to be done, but it sounds like a fun idea!

After Singo in Texarkana was karaoke, and one of the first singers was 6-year-old Aspen Clark, Dylan Clark's oldest child. She sang and danced, impressing the whole crowd! Holland sang, too, but most of our group had left by then.

Other members who attended the convention were Suzanne Smith and Paul Juarez. Our eight members may have only been beaten in number by the Shawnee Club, which brought a large delegation to talk to people about next year's convention in their town.
