Last Week's Program

Protective Youth Training, Daniel Clanton

Kiwanis members should get background checks every two years because we work with Key Club members, Lt. Gov. Daniel Clanton told our club on August 5.

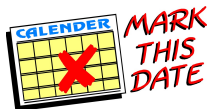

Clanton showed a slide detailing communication policies with youth, which are:

1. Never initiate, follow, friend, or like posts or pages of individual youth. Connect via an SLP club page/account and not individual member accounts.
2. On photos taken at club events, get parent/guardian permission. Never post on personal social media.
3. Use the Rule of 3: In 1-to-1 youth-to-adult texts, emails or phone calls, add a second adult, such as another advisor, parent, or guardian.

Clanton also discussed how club members should report behavior that appears abusive or inappropriate. Action steps club members should take are:

1. Immediately stop the behavior.
2. Separate the youth from the accused adult.
3. Decide whether you or the event leader will report the incident.

- T-O Dist. Conv., Grand Casino Hotel, Shawnee, Okla., July 21-24, 2027

4. Call the Youth Protection Helpline at (866) 607-SAFE (7233).
5. Collect notes before you call. The notes should include the time of the incident, information about the individuals involved, and actions taken other than investigating.

Clanton, a past president of our club, showed our improved website. It is not ready for the public to see yet, but it should be soon, he said.
