As we embark on a new club year, it's a good time to reflect on why we exist. We're a service club with an emphasis on serving the children of the world, birth through high school.

Our primary service project is sponsoring Key Clubs in three Denton high schools. We provide mentorship, opportunities for joint service, and scholarships.

Other service projects include Adopt-a-Spot Clean Up, Book Distribution, Coats for Kids at Nette Shulz Elementary, Disaster Relief Backpacks, and Sleep in Heavenly Peace Build-a-Bed. We focus on projects that serve children.

Our public relations projects include Arts 'n' Jazz Festival, Arts and Autos Festival, Chamber of Commerce, July 4th Parade Float, and Hotter 'n' Hell Bicycle Rally booth.

We raise funds primarily through the annual Turkey Roll Bicycle Rally on the Saturday before Thanksgiving every year. This is the biggie! All hands on deck. Watch for an email with signup genius instructions. There are many jobs that weekend, and it will require everyone working and bringing friends to help.

Every member invite a guest to join us!
